Hi Tom,

I'm sorry it's taken so long to get a picture to you but it's been pretty crazy around here. We were able to make one car show this year and there were 232 cars entered. They gave awards for the top 50 cars and we ended up winning one. The picture I sent has Scott holding our award, I also sent a close up of the award.

Thanks again for the car, I have an extremely happy husband. Have a great holiday season!!!

Mary
